Dussehra or Vijayadashami is an important Indian festival, which signifies the victory of good over evil. It shows us the importance of truth and righteousness. Furthermore, it makes us believe in the light at the end of the tunnel. As you all are back to your classes after spending your Dusshera holidays, it is time to think creatively and answer the following questions –

1. What lessons can we take from Lord Rama's respect for nature and animals during his time in the forest? (SDG 11 Sustainable Cities and Communities)

---

---

---

---

2. How did Lord Hanuman's devotion and selflessness contribute to the well-being of others? (SDG 3 Good Health and Well-being.)

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. How did Lord Rama's team, including Hanuman and the monkey army, work together to achieve their goals? (SDG 17 - Partnerships for the Goals)

---

---

---

---

---

4. How did Lord Rama demonstrate the importance of honesty and integrity in the Ramayana? How do you think these values help us in our daily life ? (SDG 16 Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions)

---

---

---

---

---

5. Lord Rama showed respect for his parents and elders and also towards different people throughout the story of Ramayana irrespective of their socio-economic background. What can we learn from this attribute of Lord Rama ? (SDG 10 - Reduced Inequalities)
